Callahan advised Mrs. Wright that he had only payed $50.00 previously for the service and she was raising it 3 times a month. She disputed Callahan's word. Callahan told Wright that she was disputing his word and he didn't like it. She said she could do anything and charge any amount she wanted to and it would be done her way or no way, rules or no rules and told Callahan to get out or leave. They would do what they wanted to do and that I couldn't stop them. They both left the front desk and left Callahan standing.

Respectfully, Sub
